

Agenda

Lake Washington Technical College

7:30–9:30 a.m.

April 11, 2007

East Bldg. Room E-144 Exec Dining Room

Greetings	Mayor Jim Lauinger Welcome and thanks to Dr. Metke, LWTC	7:35–7:45
Campus Welcome	Dr. L. Michael Metke, President, LWTC Introducing clean technology and renewable resources programs at LWTC
Program
Sustainability: The Business Case		7:50–8:10
Bill Vadino, Executive Director, Kirkland Chamber of Commerce
What can businesses do to become greener?
P.S. Reilly, CEO, Athena Institute
Is green a sustainable trend and can it help your bottom line?
“From Easy to Brilliant,” a tool for greening your business.
Open Discussion		8:10-8:20
Creating a Sustainable City		8:20-9:00
Greg Rock, Co-Founder, The Green Car Company
What are cutting edge cities doing to foster/implement green practices?
Ellen Miller-Wolfe, Economic Development Manager, City of Kirkland
What is the City of Kirkland doing to implement sustainability?
Dave Ramsay, Kirkland City Manager
Dave will lead a discussion of opportunities for Roundtable involvement in developing sustainable strategies for Kirkland.
Next Steps All		9:20–9:30
Adjourn		