

Where are they now?

Updated Oct. 8, 2015

Kirkland's paving contractor finishes grinding this week and, weather permitting, will begin paving next week. The sidewalks are complete—with the exception of a few missing panels. The traffic signal-upgrades are complete, as well.

LEGEND

- | | | | | | | | | | | |
|-----------|---------|--------------|------------------|-----------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|--|
| | | | | | | | | | | |
| Work zone | Medians | New pavement | Grinded pavement | Signal upgraded to ITS technology | Installed water main | Completed water main connections | Completed stormwater | Installed/replaced sidewalk/curb | Undergrounded utility wires | Undergrounded conduit for future utility wires |