

THE SOLUTION: The box culvert, similar to this one on Yarrow Creek, will include a sump, which will trap sediment and more efficiently allow maintenance workers to transport that sediment to a decant facility. This will reduce flood risks and encourage fish passage.