PROJECT UPDATE

CARING FOR YOUR INFRASTRUCTURE TO KEEP KIRKLAND HEALTHY, SAFE AND VIBRANT

A Kirkland contractor will break ground in mid-January on the second phase of the Juanita Beach Park master plan. Top-left: This project will create a new bathhouse, a pair of picnic pavillions and a new playground that will be accessible to people of all abilities. Top-right: The bathhouse's location will maximize westward views of Lake Washington. It will also house the lifeguards, a paddle board vendor, snack concessions, and changing rooms for the park's visitors. Bottom-right: The 650 square-foot pavillions will be available year-round.

Phase II begins at Juanita Beach

Kirkland is building a new bathhouse, two pavillions and an accessible playground

WHAT: A Kirkland contractor will break ground in mid-January on the second phase of the Juanita Beach Park master plan.

This project will create a new bathhouse, a pair of picnic pavillions and a new playground that will be accessible to people of all abilities.

The new bathhouse's location will maximize westward views of Lake Washington. Its restrooms will be open year-round. The bathhouse will house the lifeguards, a paddle board vendor, snack concessions, and changing rooms for the park's visitors.

Community members can use each of the 650 square-foot picnic pavillions all year for scheduled or spontaneous gatherings.

WHEN: Synergy Construction, Kirkland's contractor, expects to begin work in mid-January and to complete it by August. The contractor will be working 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, as well as some Saturdays.

WHAT TO EXPECT: Park visitors will continue to enjoy access to many park features throughout construction, including the beach, volleyball courts, the promenades and several lawn areas. However, the construction zone will be closed to the public. (See map on other side).
