ISSUES FACING THE DEPARTMENT

The Fire Department has grown incrementally over the past 40 years. Fire Stations built in the early 70's are at the end of their useful life. Four stations will be undergoing major renovations, one will be replaced and an additional Fire Station in North Kirkland has just been completed. Funding for these projects has been secured through a ballot measure in 2020. These projects are currently underway.

In addition, the Department is working on Accreditation under CPSE and improving the insurance rating given by the Washington Survey and Ratings Bureau. Many of these objectives will be funded through the passed ballot measure.

The Kirkland Fire Department has reached the professional age where retirements are beginning to be a more common occurrence. In addition, the pandemic and the approved increase in staffing levels resulted in the hiring of an unprecedented number of firefighters, and more are scheduled. As a result, key areas in administration need to be managed to handle this change. These areas include updates in Fire Department related technology, purchasing, payroll systems, capital improvements, labor relations, reporting, diversity recruitment, grant management and professional standards.

The Puget Sound region hosts a number of large and small technology companies, and the local population is technologically savvy. The Department will need to continue to find new ways to communicate with the public, measure performance and analyze trends to effectively serve the public. Social media tools present an opportunity to provide timely, accessible communications.
