3. COMMUNICATIONS – Items from the Audience

Guest Ailisa Newhall ailisa@kpcenter.org new Director of Community Programs and Education at Kirkland Performance Center, looking to network with other arts organizations in Kirkland. Would like to incorporate visual art and dance into their new programs. Vision to have KPC as more than a performance space but also as a community space.

4. ANNOUNCEMENTS

- a. 2023 KCAC Regular Meeting Schedule sent to your calendars. New zoom link.
- b. No meeting in December. Next meeting January 18, 2023.
- c. Reminder to set your password to the City email and save any emails to your own hard drive as retention is short on City site.

5. DISCUSSION

- a. Arts Donation Proposal

KPCF would like to donate a piece from their collection to be installed at the David Brink Park (or other?). The intent is to commemorate KPCF and its Founder's Circle. They are hoping for an answer by January so they can schedule install with artist by Spring 2023.

KCAC will continue discussion in January with review of Public Art Policy and process of accepting donated art. Timeline for KPCF.

- b. New Committees:

- i. Committee to review donated art, following guidelines.
Email Tracy if interested in serving on this new committee.
- ii. Sub-committee for KCAC involvement in Project Signage
Michelle Lustgarten will chair

6. ACTION NEEDED
