

KIRKLAND TEEN UNION BUILDING (KTUB)

THE KIRKLAND TEEN UNION BUILDING IS COMMITTED TO PROVIDING AN INCLUSIVE, SAFE SPACE FOR TEENS TO FEEL EMPOWERED.

Located in the middle of Peter Kirk Park in downtown Kirkland, KTUB provides year-round recreation programs for teens of middle and high school age in a teen-only space. Programs include van trips, health and wellness courses, skill-building workshops, and monthly social events. While some of our programs have fees, we always strive to make rates affordable. If you are in need of financial assistance for recreation programs, apply for a Recreation Scholarship (see page 11).

Youth Eastside Services (YES)

YES
YOUTH EASTSIDE SERVICES

Youth Eastside Services provides on-site counseling for drop-in support and scheduled appointments at KTUB for youth and their families. Services are free and include support for mental health, substance use issues, assistance with life challenges, referral and connection to additional resources as needed.

For more information, contact Katelyn Mullikin, Mental Health Counselor, at 425-517-1380 or Katelyn.Mullikin@youtheastsideservices.org

4 Tomorrow

4 Tomorrow provides support and resources to all, with a focus on marginalized and low income communities. Services include case management, rental assistance, access to mental healthcare, and small business support. At KTUB, 4 Tomorrow provides art classes, activities, and operate the Recording Studio; where teens work with experts in the field to create their own music and digital media content.

TEEN DROP-IN HOURS

KTUB offers a wide range of activities and amenities during our teen drop-in hours that promote positive socialization, skill building, and mental health and wellness. A detailed activity calendar is posted monthly on our socials and newsletter. Below is a glimpse of activities and offerings KTUB has for teens:

KTUB FREE TRANSPORTATION

The City of Kirkland offers free, one-way transportation from Finn Hill Middle School and Kamiakin Middle School to KTUB throughout the school year. This pilot program connects teens to all the free activities and services KTUB provides during the afterschool drop-in hours. Note: Transportation is 1-way and teens are expected to have a way to return home. Registration is required. Activity Code: 22697

RECORDING STUDIO

In partnership with 4 Tomorrow, KTUB offers a free, 8-week program where teens learn the foundations of music production. The curriculum aims to inspire creativity, develop technical skills, and prepare students for further studies or careers in music production. Activity Code: 21808
